SABA HOMES
Honoring & Empowering The Orphans

Nondiscrimination Policy

Policy of Nondiscrimination as to Race, Color, and National or Ethnic Origin

International Education and Welfare Society (IEWS)
Doing Business As Saba Homes
Including Saba School of Excellence
EIN: 33-0716944

Our Commitment to Nondiscrimination

International Education and Welfare Society (IEWS), doing business as Saba Homes, including its educational institution, Saba School of Excellence, is committed to upholding the principles of equality, fairness, dignity, and respect for all individuals.

As a nonprofit charitable organization, Saba Homes maintains a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, or national or ethnic origin throughout its educational, charitable, humanitarian, and welfare programs.

Our commitment reflects our mission to provide quality education, compassionate care, humanitarian assistance, and meaningful opportunities to orphaned children, widows, vulnerable families, and underserved communities.

Notice of Nondiscriminatory Policy as to Students

Saba School of Excellence, operated by International Education and Welfare Society (IEWS), doing business as Saba Homes, admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

Saba School of Excellence does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic programs, extracurricular activities, or other school-administered programs.

Equal Access to Charitable and Humanitarian Programs

Saba Homes extends its commitment to nondiscrimination across all its charitable and humanitarian initiatives, including orphan care, educational assistance, residential support, vocational and skills development, widow empowerment, food assistance, healthcare support, disaster relief, and community welfare programs.

All programs and services are administered according to established eligibility requirements, demonstrated needs, available resources, and the charitable objectives of each program, without discrimination based on race, color, or national or ethnic origin.

SABA HOMES

Honoring & Empowering The Orphans

Policy Implementation and Compliance

International Education and Welfare Society (IEWS), doing business as Saba Homes, including Saba School of Excellence, is committed to maintaining and implementing this policy throughout its educational, charitable, and humanitarian operations.

This policy is intended to support compliance with applicable federal nondiscrimination requirements, including those governing organizations recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, where applicable, IRS Revenue Procedure 75-50, as modified by Revenue Procedure 2019-22.

Saba Homes and Saba School of Excellence remain dedicated to ensuring that all eligible individuals are treated with fairness, dignity, compassion, and equal respect.

International Education and Welfare Society (IEWS)
DBA Saba Homes | Saba School of Excellence
EIN: 33-0716944
Official Website: www.sabatrust.org